Notes

1. SS, the chair and SP, the facilitator of the GDG and Director of the National Collaborating Centre for Mental Health, welcomed the group. Apologies were received from Sara Barratt, Nick Gould, Naomi Glover, Daphne Keen, Paul McArdle.
2. There were no interests to be declared.
3. There were no service user concerns.
4. There were no social care concerns. RG agreed to circulate the Munro report to GDG members.
5. CW presented on the recent NCCMH-developed NICE guideline Service user experience.
6. The review questions were signed off, subject to several minor changes.
7. BA presented on the draft health economic plan.
8. FK, research assistant at the NCCMH, presented the results of the preliminary sifting of interventions evidence.
9. SP explained that topic groups can be formed on guidelines where there is lots of evidence, in order to facilitate and speed up analysis. It was agreed that there would be a topic group for prevention and intervention.
10. SP explained that the writing tasks will be allocated over the coming months.
11. LG presented on the GMS.
12. RN, systematic reviewer at the NCCMH, presented the GDG with a list of case identification and assessment toll extracted from other systematic reviews and studies, and asked for advice on which of there were relevant for clinical use.
13. SP presented on the evidence analysis and resulting recommendations that came out of the guideline on common mental health disorders.
14. There was no other business.
