3	Minutes of last meeting The PDG were asked to review the minutes from PDG 3. These were approved. The Chair requested a minor amendment to the minutes of PDG 2 to clarify that the Department of Transport were to submit figures of young passengers injured by young drivers. These figures have now been received. NICE team to circulate to PDG by email. The Chair asked the PDG to send their biography to Melinda if they had not already done so.	NICE team PDG
4	Review 4: Strategic and regulatory frameworks for guiding, enforcing or promoting activities to prevent unintentional injury in children and young people in the home environment – Presentation of key findings

	Ruth Garside from PenTAG gave a presentation focusing on the key findings.
5	Review 4: Questions of clarification Before the questions to PenTAG, the Chair asked James Jagroo from NICE to give the PDG an update on the review work that is being done by NICE on a related piece of intervention guidance Preventing unintentional injuries among under 15s in the home. A paper containing extracted evidence statements was tabled. The Chair thanked James from NICE and the review team from PenTAG, and asked for questions and points of clarification. The PDG requested clarification on the definition of portable equipment. The PDG discussed the potential for using the evidence from the intervention review for the programme guidance. Simon Ellis said that at the September meeting this will be discussed.
6	Preventing unintentional injuries among under 15s Anthony Smythe, Policy Advisor from the Child Safety Unit at DCSF gave a presentation which outlined current and forthcoming relevant national strategies, policies and initiatives.
7	Inequities in child injuries Professor Denise Kendrick, from University of Nottingham gave a presentation on Inequities and inequalities in child injuries.
8	Questions and whole group discussion The Chair thanked Anthony and Denise and invited questions from the PDG. A discussion followed which referred to the following areas: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • the relative merits of targeting interventions rather than a universal approach to prevent unintentional injury • the benefits of receiving a safety message from a ‘trusted’ source • some disadvantaged groups having a higher risk of injury compared to other groups and the role of policy making.
10	Discussion of evidence The committee split into three small groups, each to discuss the evidence statements that had been generated by the review and the content of the speaker sessions. Each group was led by a member of the PDG.
11	Review 4: Developing recommendations The committee split into the same three groups to consider how the

	evidence might be used to formulate some provisional recommendations. The group were also given a copy of the two home-related draft recommendations developed from the second PDG meeting. The Chair asked that each group produce at least one draft recommendation to feed back to the whole group and outline one or more other ideas for recommendations. The PDG was advised to focus on specific actions for particular groups, such as practitioners, professionals or policy makers. Again, each group was led by a member of the PDG.
12	Review 4: Plenary report back from groups A PDG member from each group reported back to the whole PDG: i) details of their discussion of the evidence; and ii) details of their development of provisional recommendations. A plenary discussion followed. The Chair thanked the groups for their work and asked the NICE team to consolidate these draft recommendations for circulation to the PDG for comments.	NICE team
13	PUIC Road Intervention guidance: feedback from the PHIAC meeting The Chair explained that she, and two other PDG members, (AR, AAT) had attended the NICE Public Health Intervention Advisory Committee (PHIAC) meeting on Preventing unintentional road injuries among under 15s: road design on 17th July. The Chair informed the PDG that there will be representation from the PDG at the next PHIAC meeting in September which will discuss the intervention work on Preventing unintentional injuries among under 15s in the home.
14	Summary of the day, agreed action and next steps The Chair thanked the PDG for their active participation throughout the day and thanked Denise and Anthony for their useful contributions. The next meeting is to be held Friday 18th September 2009 at the NICE offices, Mid City Place, 71 High Holborn, London WC1V 6NA.
