NICE PUBLIC HEALTH PROGRAMME GUIDANCE

Contraceptive services for socially disadvantaged young people

8th meeting of the Programme Development Group

Thursday 18th February 2010

Derwent room, NICE Offices, MidCity Place, 71 High Holborn, London WC1V 6NA

Final Minutes

Attendees:	PDG Members
	Anne Weyman – Chair Penny Barber, Lucy Dallimore Ros Delaney Alaina Dingwall, Pat Farley, Karen Harrison, Ruth Hine, Lesley Hoggart, Rhiannon Holder, Ifigeneia Mavranezouli, Pauline McGough, Karen Spooner, Faye Sutton, Kim Tanner, Babs Young.
	NICE
	Chris Carmona (CC), Alastair Fischer (AF), Mandy Harling (MH) pm only, Patricia Mountain (PM), Kay Nolan (KN), Gary Shield (GS) pm only, Clare Wohlgemuth (CW), Tricia Younger (TY).
	Collaborating Centre – ScHARR Sue Baxter (SB)
	Experts Kate Laverty, Jacquie Rowlands and Judith Hind - Department of Health
Apologies:	PDG Members
	Amar Abass, Terri Ryland.
	Nice Team Mike Kelly (MK)
Author	Patricia Mountain
Version	Final

1	Welcome, Introductions and Aims of the Meeting
'	Treloome, incloductions and Aims of the Meeting
	The Chair welcomed the PDG to the eighth meeting. The aims of the meeting were:
	 To consider the updated views review To revise draft recommendations in response to the email consultation and the views review
	To consider evidence from DH policy and from practice
	The Chair congratulated Rhiannon Holder who was awarded MBE in the New Year Honours.
	The invited experts for this meeting were from the Department of Health
	Sexual Health team: Kate Laverty, Jacquie Rowlands and Judith Hind.
	The PDG membership list was circulated. The members were asked to sign if they are still content with their entry and alter it if they are not. A revised list will be circulated at the next meeting on March 24th.
2	Declarations of interest
_	Deciarations of filterest
	No new declarations of interest were made.
	All mambars of the ScHAPP team declared a new personal populations
	All members of the ScHARR team declared a non personal pecuniary interest with regard to potential future research in the area.
3	Minutes of last meeting and matters arising
3
3	 Minutes of last meeting and matters arising The minutes were approved. PDG members were invited to continue to contribute to the glossary 	PDG
3	 The minutes were approved. PDG members were invited to continue to contribute to the glossary for the guidance by drafting a short definition/explanation of terms 	PDG members
3	 The minutes were approved. PDG members were invited to continue to contribute to the glossary for the guidance by drafting a short definition/explanation of terms that may need to be clarified. TY explained that would be best defined
3	 The minutes were approved. PDG members were invited to continue to contribute to the glossary for the guidance by drafting a short definition/explanation of terms that may need to be clarified. TY explained that would be best defined when used within the main text of the guidance and this approach
3	 The minutes were approved. PDG members were invited to continue to contribute to the glossary for the guidance by drafting a short definition/explanation of terms that may need to be clarified. TY explained that would be best defined
3	 The minutes were approved. PDG members were invited to continue to contribute to the glossary for the guidance by drafting a short definition/explanation of terms that may need to be clarified. TY explained that would be best defined when used within the main text of the guidance and this approach would be more appropriate than including a separate glossary for a limited number of terms. Any members has not been able to provide printed copies of the
3	 The minutes were approved. PDG members were invited to continue to contribute to the glossary for the guidance by drafting a short definition/explanation of terms that may need to be clarified. TY explained that would be best defined when used within the main text of the guidance and this approach would be more appropriate than including a separate glossary for a limited number of terms. Any members has not been able to provide printed copies of the DH/DCSF report on 'improving access to sexual health services for
3	 The minutes were approved. PDG members were invited to continue to contribute to the glossary for the guidance by drafting a short definition/explanation of terms that may need to be clarified. TY explained that would be best defined when used within the main text of the guidance and this approach would be more appropriate than including a separate glossary for a limited number of terms. Any members has not been able to provide printed copies of the DH/DCSF report on 'improving access to sexual health services for young people in further education' However NICE can provide printed
3	 The minutes were approved. PDG members were invited to continue to contribute to the glossary for the guidance by drafting a short definition/explanation of terms that may need to be clarified. TY explained that would be best defined when used within the main text of the guidance and this approach would be more appropriate than including a separate glossary for a limited number of terms. Any members has not been able to provide printed copies of the DH/DCSF report on 'improving access to sexual health services for
3	 The minutes were approved. PDG members were invited to continue to contribute to the glossary for the guidance by drafting a short definition/explanation of terms that may need to be clarified. TY explained that would be best defined when used within the main text of the guidance and this approach would be more appropriate than including a separate glossary for a limited number of terms. Any members has not been able to provide printed copies of the DH/DCSF report on 'improving access to sexual health services for young people in further education' However NICE can provide printed downloaded copies for community members and any other members on request. www.dcsf.gov.uk/everychildmatters/resources-and-practice/IG00244/
3	 The minutes were approved. PDG members were invited to continue to contribute to the glossary for the guidance by drafting a short definition/explanation of terms that may need to be clarified. TY explained that would be best defined when used within the main text of the guidance and this approach would be more appropriate than including a separate glossary for a limited number of terms. Any members has not been able to provide printed copies of the DH/DCSF report on 'improving access to sexual health services for young people in further education' However NICE can provide printed downloaded copies for community members and any other members on request.
3	 The minutes were approved. PDG members were invited to continue to contribute to the glossary for the guidance by drafting a short definition/explanation of terms that may need to be clarified. TY explained that would be best defined when used within the main text of the guidance and this approach would be more appropriate than including a separate glossary for a limited number of terms. Any members has not been able to provide printed copies of the DH/DCSF report on 'improving access to sexual health services for young people in further education' However NICE can provide printed downloaded copies for community members and any other members on request. www.dcsf.gov.uk/everychildmatters/resources-and-practice/IG00244/
	 The minutes were approved. PDG members were invited to continue to contribute to the glossary for the guidance by drafting a short definition/explanation of terms that may need to be clarified. TY explained that would be best defined when used within the main text of the guidance and this approach would be more appropriate than including a separate glossary for a limited number of terms. Any members has not been able to provide printed copies of the DH/DCSF report on 'improving access to sexual health services for young people in further education' However NICE can provide printed downloaded copies for community members and any other members on request. www.dcsf.gov.uk/everychildmatters/resources-and-practice/IG00244/ All matters arising were on the agenda or had been actioned. Update on timelines, progress and next stages
	 The minutes were approved. PDG members were invited to continue to contribute to the glossary for the guidance by drafting a short definition/explanation of terms that may need to be clarified. TY explained that would be best defined when used within the main text of the guidance and this approach would be more appropriate than including a separate glossary for a limited number of terms. Any members has not been able to provide printed copies of the DH/DCSF report on 'improving access to sexual health services for young people in further education' However NICE can provide printed downloaded copies for community members and any other members on request. www.dcsf.gov.uk/everychildmatters/resources-and-practice/IG00244/ All matters arising were on the agenda or had been actioned. Update on timelines, progress and next stages Tricia Younger, Associate Director at NICE, updated the PDG on the next
	 The minutes were approved. PDG members were invited to continue to contribute to the glossary for the guidance by drafting a short definition/explanation of terms that may need to be clarified. TY explained that would be best defined when used within the main text of the guidance and this approach would be more appropriate than including a separate glossary for a limited number of terms. Any members has not been able to provide printed copies of the DH/DCSF report on 'improving access to sexual health services for young people in further education' However NICE can provide printed downloaded copies for community members and any other members on request. www.dcsf.gov.uk/everychildmatters/resources-and-practice/IG00244/ All matters arising were on the agenda or had been actioned. Update on timelines, progress and next stages Tricia Younger, Associate Director at NICE, updated the PDG on the next steps in the development of the guidance.
	 The minutes were approved. PDG members were invited to continue to contribute to the glossary for the guidance by drafting a short definition/explanation of terms that may need to be clarified. TY explained that would be best defined when used within the main text of the guidance and this approach would be more appropriate than including a separate glossary for a limited number of terms. Any members has not been able to provide printed copies of the DH/DCSF report on 'improving access to sexual health services for young people in further education' However NICE can provide printed downloaded copies for community members and any other members on request. www.dcsf.gov.uk/everychildmatters/resources-and-practice/IG00244/ All matters arising were on the agenda or had been actioned. Update on timelines, progress and next stages Tricia Younger, Associate Director at NICE, updated the PDG on the next
	 The minutes were approved. PDG members were invited to continue to contribute to the glossary for the guidance by drafting a short definition/explanation of terms that may need to be clarified. TY explained that would be best defined when used within the main text of the guidance and this approach would be more appropriate than including a separate glossary for a limited number of terms. Any members has not been able to provide printed copies of the DH/DCSF report on 'improving access to sexual health services for young people in further education' However NICE can provide printed downloaded copies for community members and any other members on request. www.dcsf.gov.uk/everychildmatters/resources-and-practice/IG00244/ All matters arising were on the agenda or had been actioned. Update on timelines, progress and next stages Tricia Younger, Associate Director at NICE, updated the PDG on the next steps in the development of the guidance. The evidence was issued for consultation on 8 February - 8 March PDG 9 – 24th March
	 The minutes were approved. PDG members were invited to continue to contribute to the glossary for the guidance by drafting a short definition/explanation of terms that may need to be clarified. TY explained that would be best defined when used within the main text of the guidance and this approach would be more appropriate than including a separate glossary for a limited number of terms. Any members has not been able to provide printed copies of the DH/DCSF report on 'improving access to sexual health services for young people in further education' However NICE can provide printed downloaded copies for community members and any other members on request. www.dcsf.gov.uk/everychildmatters/resources-and-practice/IG00244/ All matters arising were on the agenda or had been actioned. Update on timelines, progress and next stages Tricia Younger, Associate Director at NICE, updated the PDG on the next steps in the development of the guidance. The evidence was issued for consultation on 8 February - 8 March PDG 9 - 24th March Fieldwork 25th May - 23rd June (If PDG members would like to
	 The minutes were approved. PDG members were invited to continue to contribute to the glossary for the guidance by drafting a short definition/explanation of terms that may need to be clarified. TY explained that would be best defined when used within the main text of the guidance and this approach would be more appropriate than including a separate glossary for a limited number of terms. Any members has not been able to provide printed copies of the DH/DCSF report on 'improving access to sexual health services for young people in further education' However NICE can provide printed downloaded copies for community members and any other members on request. www.dcsf.gov.uk/everychildmatters/resources-and-practice/IG00244/ All matters arising were on the agenda or had been actioned. Update on timelines, progress and next stages Tricia Younger, Associate Director at NICE, updated the PDG on the next steps in the development of the guidance. The evidence was issued for consultation on 8 February - 8 March PDG 9 – 24th March

	 PDG meetings to revise guidance – 14th July & 15th July
5 Pr	esentation of the evidence from the updated Views review
the	ue Baxter from ScHARR gave a presentation on the main findings of e updated views review. Sue gave the PDG an overview of the main emes emerging from the updated review.
	Lestions and general discussion ne discussion included the following: Waiting times Appointments and drop in Reminders and follow up contact Ease of access Roles of pharmacists and youth workers, respectively. Take up of intra-uterine contraceptives
7 0	verview of comments on the draft recommendations
	C outlined the revisions to the draft recommendations and explained e group-work task.
ind • • • • • Ea	roup work: Working on the revised draft recommendations cluding: Evidence from the updated views review Gaps Amendments Research recommendations ach group discussed different groups of draft recommendations. Each oup had one lay member and one NICE team member to facilitate as accessary eedback to full group and discussion bints raised included: The Considerations should including points raised in the views review Communication of the guidance will be a key point in its success. NICE team to invite a member of the Communications team to a future PDG meeting Members were invited to draft recommendations based on evidence not included so far.	NICE team PDG NICE Team
Ka He • •	esentation of evidence from DH policy and practice ate Laverty, Judith Hind and Jacquie Rowlands from the Department of ealth discussed the following: DH review on the NHS contribution to teenage pregnancy delivery Research that has been undertaken to inform the DH contraception campaign Update on the progress of the Central Office of Information review focusing on contraception. The PDG was informed that the findings of the COI review can be shared the the PDG once they are available.
	3

Final minutes of CS PDG 8

Questions and discussion
Areas discussed included:
Effective use of contraception
· ·
· · ·
·
Provision in rural areas
Encouraging attendance at clinics
School –based services
Economics update
AF summarised progress of the economic modelling
The implementation and costing team
Mandy Harling and Gary Shield explained the resources that NICE will develop to support the implementation of the guidance.
Any other business
Draft recommendations to be considered in PDG 9
The meeting closed at 4pm
	Areas discussed included: Effective use of contraception Awareness of the full range of methods of contraception Media campaigns Differences between good and poor performing areas Need for consistent provision of contraceptive services rather than short term projects Provision in rural areas Encouraging attendance at clinics School –based services Economics update AF summarised progress of the economic modelling The implementation and costing team Mandy Harling and Gary Shield explained the resources that NICE will develop to support the implementation of the guidance. Any other business Communications have been invited to PDG 9 Draft recommendations to be considered in PDG 9

DATE OF NEXT MEETING: 24th March 2010, NICE Offices, London

MEETING PAPERS TO BE MAILED: 15th March 2010