

Update on scheduling of the second Appraisal Committee meeting

17 Feb 2012-02-23

The Institute has exceptionally agreed to a request of Janssen to submit further analyses addressing some of the Appraisal Committee's considerations included in the ACD. As a consequence of this submission the Institute will have to commission further evidence review, which in turn will necessitate rescheduling of the planned second Committee meeting.

The second Appraisal Committee meeting will now be held on 3 April 2012.
