Information for Applicants

We will inform all applicants of the status of their application.

On appointment successful applicants must have completed

- An Equalities monitoring form
- A Declarations of Interest form
- A Confidentiality form

Appointments will not be formally confirmed until all three documents have been satisfactorily completed.

All successful applicants will be informed of our decision via telephone call and letter of confirmation. All unsuccessful applicants will be informed via letter.

Answering your questions

For queries about your application or the subsequent decision, please telephone the National Collaborating Centre for Mental Health on 020 7679 1785.

If you are unhappy with the recruitment process please contact Stephen Pilling, Joint Director of the National Collaborating Centre for Mental Health.

We aim to process all applications as quickly as possible and to treat all applicants with courtesy. If you feel that you have any complaints about the way your application has been handled, we would like to hear from you.
