

Hip Fracture GDG Membership List

Name	Title	Specialist area
Professor Cameron Swift	Emeritus Professor of Health Care of the Elderly, Kings College London School of Medicine.	Guideline Development Group Chair Physician and clinical pharmacologist with specialism in the health care of older people. Senior clinical academic with 18-years experience of departmental headship, and 24 of consultant clinical practice (including orthogeriatrics) and NHS service development. In addition to two-year (2000-2002) Presidency of the British Geriatrics Society, served as a member of the UK Committee on Safety of Medicines (SEAR)(6 years) and subsequently the Medicines Commission (5 years). As Physician to the External Reference Group, chaired the working group on Standard 6 (Falls and Osteoporosis) for the England National Service Framework for Older People.
Professor Opinder Sahota	Professor in Orthogeriatric Medicine and Consultant Physician, Queens Medical Centre, University Hospital, Nottingham	Lead clinician for falls and osteoporosis QMC, Nottingham University Hospitals. Secondary Care Representative Nottinghamshire Accident Prevention working group. British Geriatrics Society (BGS) England Representative Academic and Research Committee. Joint Chair BGS Falls and Bone Health Section. Executive Council member National Hip Fracture Database group
Dr Antony Johansen	Consultant in Orthogeriatrics and Trauma Medicine, Trauma Unit, Cardiff and Vale NHS Trust	As a full-time orthogeriatrician Dr Johansen has for the past 12 years led a multidisciplinary team providing medical and rehabilitative support to older patients with hip fracture - pioneering a 'shared care' model of collaborative working with orthopaedic surgeons in pre-operative assessment and peri-operative care. This clinical, research and audit experience is reflected in his contributions to the Welsh Assembly's 'Orthopaedic Strategy' and 'Older Person's NSF', and to the Hip Fracture section of the 'Blue Book' Fragility Fracture guideline.
Mr Tim Chesser	Consultant Orthopaedic and Trauma Surgeon, North Bristol NHS Trust, Frenchay and Southmead	Practising consultant orthopaedic trauma surgeon with a longstanding interest in osteoporotic fractures. Speciality Director for Orthopaedic Trauma for over five years, leading

Hip Fracture GDG Membership List

Name	Title	Specialist area
	Hospitals, Bristol	care of hip fractures in one of the largest NHS Trusts in the country . Clinical lead for the South West Hip fracture, Bone Health and Falls Prevention Review. Is very active in research and has set up and led one of the largest randomised controlled trials in hip fracture management in the country. Runs Hip Fracture Courses for Consultants, Trainees and Allied Health Professionals".
Mr Bob Handley	Consultant Trauma and Orthopaedic Surgeon, John Radcliffe Hospital Oxford	Consultant Trauma and Orthopaedic Surgeon for 15 years in a consultant based trauma service. Clinical work exclusively related to the management of musculoskeletal injury. The clinical involvement is mainly with the acute management then to a lesser extent with secondary problems. Extensive involvement in training junior surgeons in the skills of fracture management.
Ms Karen Hertz	Advanced Nurse Practitioner Locomotor Directorate, University Hospital of North Staffordshire	Responsible for daily care of patients admitted following fracture of the neck of femur, under the guidance of an orthopaedic surgeon and orthogeriatrician. Developed a dynamic multi-disciplinary care pathway document for patients admitted following a fractured neck of femur. Royal College of Nursing representative member on the National Hip fracture Database executive group.
Dr Richard Griffiths	Consultant in Anaesthesia Peterborough Hospitals NHS Trust	Actively involved in the care of patients with hip fracture and anaesthetises approximately 75 patients per year. co-authored two Cochrane reviews, a BMJ Clinical Evidence Review, a peer reviewed RCT and currently involved in research projects concerning hip fracture anaesthesia. Started the NHS Hip fracture anaesthesia network, which at present has 96 consultant members throughout the U.K. The network has conducted one and is in the middle of its second large audit. Council member of Age Anaesthesia and am an elected council member of the Association of Anaesthetists of Great Britain and Ireland.

Hip Fracture GDG Membership List

Name	Title	Specialist area
Professor Sallie Lamb	Professor of Rehabilitation; Division of Health in the Community, Warwick Medical School, University of Warwick	Physiotherapist and health services researcher by background, has clinical experience in geriatric rehabilitation and a special interest in rehabilitation of hip fracture. Registered with the health professions council, member of the Chartered Society of Physiotherapy and NiHR Senior Investigator with a long standing interest in improving the management of hip fracture through research and development activities. Has internationally recognised profile in falls prevention, and was a member of the AGS/BGS falls guideline panel. She is Director of the Warwick Clinical Trials Unit, and has extensive experience of clinical trials, economic analysis and systematic reviewing.
Mrs Heather Towndrow	Clinical therapy manager, Bassetlaw Primary Care Trust	Clinical therapy manager and qualified occupational therapist with interagency and multidisciplinary managerial experience. Well respected by health and social care professionals for coordinating purposeful well evaluated rehabilitation, falls prevention and rapid response services for older people
Dr Sally Hope	Principal in General Practice, Woodstock , OXON	Founder member of the Primary Care Group in Gynaecology: A national group for nurses, GPs and Gynaecologists to promote better care for women in the primary care setting . Royal College of GPs representative on the NICE committee for production of Osteoporosis guidelines. Member of the Editorial Board of Maturitas. Honorary Research Fellow, Department of Primary Health Care, University of Oxford.
Ms Tessa Somerville	Patient/Carer representative	Had hip resurfacing operation following osteo arthritis caused by steroids taken as part of chemo therapy. Lymphoma Association buddy, a scheme where patients (normally newly diagnosed or about to go through a new treatment regimen) can speak with other patients with relevant experience. As telephone befriender for the charity "Friends of the Elderly", she speaks to many people who have experience of hip fracture. Member of Barts and the London NHS trust.

Hip Fracture GDG Membership List

Name	Title	Specialist area
Mr Anthony Field	Patient/Carer representative	Had hip replacement and femur fracture, infected with MRSA. Member of the Royal Orthopaedic Birmingham PPI Forum, Former Chairman of MRSA Support now a Vice President. Organised meetings and seminars, lobbies of Parliament in 2005 and 2007 and gives talks and presentations on MRSA and its effects.
Mr Martin Wiese	Consultant in Emergency Medicine, Leicester Royal Infirmary, University Hospitals of Leicester NHS Trust	Three years experience as a consultant in the largest single-site emergency department (ED) in the UK. Member of the College of Emergency Medicine (CEM) Clinical Effectiveness Committee Sepsis Subgroup. Interest in algorithms as a means to express complex guidance and support clinical decision-making. Developed local ED hip fracture investigation and management proforma. Collaborating with ED clinical nurse educator on a project to establish fascia iliaca block as an extended skill for ED nurses.
Expert advisors
Mr Martyn Parker	Orthopaedic Surgeon, Peterborough District Hospital	Orthopaedic Surgeon with a specialised interest in the treatment of patients with hip fractures. For the past 20 years, he's been directly responsible for the care of all hip fracture patients admitted to Peterborough district Hospital. This includes pre-operative and surgical assessments and post-operative care and follow up. During this time he has undertaken research and evaluation into all aspects of hip fracture including studies on the aetiology, treatment, outcome and prevention of hip fractures. In addition, he has written two textbooks on the subject, several book chapters, 19 Cochrane reviews and over 100 research papers.

Hip Fracture GDG Membership List

Name	Title	Specialist area
TBC	Social Care advisor, Social Care Institute for Excellence (SCIE)
TBC	Radiologist
TBC	Commissioner or Clinical Director	