Apologies: Patrick Nee

Notes

1. The Chair welcomed the group to the fifth meeting of this GDG. Apologies were received from Patrick Nee. The Chair asked all GDG members to declare any relevant conflicts of interest. The following interests were declared by Monty Mythen - The first being co-inventor of QUENCH (a fluid device) and second, director of Medical Defence Technologies for patented Gastrostim. This was discussed and decided that no action required. The remainder of the GDG declared that they knew of no personal specific, personal non-specific, non-personal specific or non-personal non-specific interest in the development of this guideline. No other previously declared interests were deemed to require any action.
2. The Chair introduced the NCGC Research Fellow, Lee Yee Chong, who presented on the clinical effectiveness of albumin in the management of fluid resuscitation, and took questions from the group. The GDG discussed the issues presented in relation to this guideline. The Chair thanked LYC for her presentation.
3. The Chair introduced the NCGC Health Economist, Lilian Li, who presented on the cost effectiveness of albumin in the management of fluid resuscitation, and took questions from the group. The GDG discussed the issues presented in relation to this guideline. The
