

Polycystic ovary syndrome: assessment and management – Review Questions

The NICE guideline on polycystic ovary syndrome: assessment and management is being adapted from the International Guideline on polycystic ovary syndrome. NICE is not carrying out any original systematic evidence reviews. For a list of the review questions from the International Guideline, please refer to the Monash University website.