Dawn Lee  IPAC Committee Member	Committee Member	Indirect interest	My previous company Lumanity (last day 1st September; IPAC meeting is 8th September) received consultancy fees from Medtronic for a number of projects. The most recent one finished in August 2021 and was for the derivation of costs for spinal cord compression in the Netherlands. I have not personally worked with them in this disease area and the only time I did work with them was in ~2013 when I QC'd a cost-effectiveness model for renal denervation. I have never received any fees directly.	2013	16.08.2022	01.09.2022	As I have left the company and the interest is highly indirect I am hoping this does not impact
