

Declaration of interests register

Medical Technologies Advisory Committee

Publication Date: 10/01/2019

Topics: MT366 Mepilex Border Heel and Sacrum dressings for preventing pressure ulcers

Name	Role with NICE	Type of interest	Description of interest	Relevant dates			NICE comments
				Interest arose	Interest declared	Interest ceased
Ms Carol Johnson	Expert adviser	None	N/A	N/A	N/A	N/A	No action required
Ms Gillian Maclean	Expert adviser	Direct – Financial	Ms Maclean recently sat on a safety advisory panel to discuss Incontinence Associated Dermatitis. No products were discussed and the purpose of the meeting was to make recommendations for preventative management and treatment advice. Ms Maclean will receive a one-off consultancy fee from 3M for her time.	28/03/2018	10/04/2018	28/03/2018	No action other than the process of open declaration – reviewed by Medical Technologies Evaluation Programme Manager
Ms Lisa Robson	Expert adviser	N/A	N/A	N/A	N/A	N/A	No action required

Prof Keith Harding	Expert adviser	Direct – Financial	Professor Harding works in the area of contract research/education and has provided consultancy services to the company by Welsh Wound Innovation Centre (WWIC). WWIC is a Company by Guarantee that has as members Cardiff University / Swansea University / Cardiff & Vale UHB and Cwm Taf UHB the sum of £131,945.80 since 2015. Professor Harding has been associated with receiving a total of around £100million since 1991 from over 70 companies and involved in over 200 clinical trials, the majority of which have been sponsored by Industry.	1991	18/09/2018	Ongoing	Complete exclusion* – reviewed by Medical Technologies Evaluation Programme Manager and Acting Programme Director (Devices & Diagnostics) * Prof Harding contributed his expert advice to the committee in writing and was not privy to any confidential information or decision making.
Prof Michael Clark	Expert adviser	Direct – Financial	Prof Clark acts as a Consultant to multiple wound care companies through the Welsh Wound Innovation Centre (WWIC).	-	21/09/2017	Ongoing	Complete exclusion* – reviewed by Medical Technologies Evaluation Programme Manager and Acting Programme Director

		Direct – Non-financial professional	From 2011-2014 Professor Clark co-chaired an advisory board for Mölnlycke Health Care on use of dressings in pressure ulcer prevention.	2011	21/09/2017	2014	(Devices & Diagnostics) * Prof Clark contributed his expert advice to the committee in writing and was not privy to any confidential information or decision making.
Prof Daniel Clark	MTAC member	Direct – Non-financial professional	Professor Clark works with the Centre for Healthcare Equipment & Technology Adoption (CHEATA) which is part of Clinical Engineering at Nottingham University Hospitals NHS Trust. CHEATA have been contracted by Mölnlycke Health Care to support their evidence submission to NICE.	18/01/2018	18/01/2018	Current	Complete exclusion – reviewed by Medical Technologies Evaluation Programme Manager and Acting Programme Director (Devices & Diagnostics)
Dr Amber Young	MTAC member	Direct – Non-financial professional	Dr Young was the Chief Investigator on an NIHR RfPB grant to look at the use of low friction sheeting in preventing skin graft loss after burn injury. The low friction sheeting they used was made by Parafriacta. The company	June 2015	22/06/2018	June 2017	No action other than the process of open declaration – reviewed by Medical Technologies Evaluation Programme Manager

			were not actively involved in the research apart from in a consolatory role (i.e. how to use the sheets, advice on cleaning etc.) and they received no funding. Dr Young received no funding from the company and the research has now ended and has been published in the end of June 2017 and started two years previously.
--	--	--	---	--	--	--	--