Notes

1. PT opened the meeting and introduced Judy McBride.
2. Apologies were received from Elena Garralda and Brian Littlechild; Clifford Middleton will be joining for the afternoon session.
3. No new declarations of interest were made.
4. JMcB went through her presentation on the NICE guideline publications.
5. The NICE guideline was reviewed recommendation by recommendation, continuing on from yesterday's GDG with:
 - The use of restrictive interventions (rapid tranquillisation, seclusion)
 - Post incident review (working with service users)
 - Interface between mental health services and the police
6. Modifications for different populations and different settings were discussed, including:
 - Children and young people (restraint, seclusion, rapid tranquillisation)
 - Emergency departments
 - Community settings – Brian Littlechild joined via teleconference for this item
7. Research recommendations and recommendations that are key priorities for implementation were tabled for the next meeting.
8. The full guideline and writing plan were discussed, including key dates for writing and reviewing.
9. Service user and carer representative concerns were discussed including feedback on the GDG experience to date.
10. Key submission dates were discussed.
11. The next GDG meeting is Tuesday 9th September, 10.30am – 4pm.
