1. Welcome and objectives for the meeting

The Chair (AF) welcomed the committee members and NICE attendees to the first committee meeting for the Breast cancer – reducing arm and shoulder mobility problems after breast cancer surgery (update) guideline update.

AF informed attendees that apologies had been received as noted above. AF asked all committee members to verbally declare any interests. No new interests were declared.

AF outlined the aims and objectives for the meeting.

2. Presentation of clinical evidence

AF introduced NICE Technical Analyst Yolanda Martinez (YM) and Senior Technical Analyst Clare Dadswell (CD), who presented the clinical evidence for review question 1.1: What strategies are effective in reducing arm and shoulder problems after breast cancer surgery or radiotherapy? The committee were invited to discuss and interpret the evidence presented.

AF thanked YM and CD for their presentation and the committee for their input.

3. Presentation of clinical evidence (continued)

Following a short break, YM and CD continued their presentation of the clinical evidence for review question 1.1: What strategies are effective in reducing arm and shoulder problems after breast cancer surgery or radiotherapy?

AF thanked YM and CD for their presentation and the committee for their input.

4. Health economics presentation

AF introduced NICE Senior Technical Analyst (Health Economics) Jeremy Dietz (JD) who presented the health economic evidence for review question 1.1 What strategies are effective in reducing arm and shoulder problems after breast cancer surgery or radiotherapy? JD then invited comments and questions from the committee.

AF thanked JD for his presentation and the committee for their input.

5. Lay member feedback

AF introduced committee lay members Julia Garlick (JG), Linda Robins (LR) and Steph Walker (SW), who put forward their views and experiences of different interventions relating to arm mobility. The rest of the committee then commented on and responded to their feedback in relation to the draft guideline recommendations.

AF thanked JG, LR and SW for their input.

6. Discussion of draft recommendations
