1. Welcome and objectives for the meeting

The Chair welcomed the Committee members and attendees to the 3rd meeting on Preventing suicide in community and custodial settings. The Committee members and attendees introduced themselves.

The Chair informed the Committee that apologies had been received. These are noted above.

The Chair outlined the objectives of the meeting, as noted in the agenda.

2. Confirmation of matter under discussion, and declarations of interest

The Chair confirmed that, for the purpose of managing conflicts of interest, the matter under discussion was Suicide prevention in community and custodial settings’.

The Chair asked everyone to verbally declare any interests.

- Vicki Levick – Has started a new role at the Department of Justice.

The Chair and a senior member of the Developer’s team noted that the interests declared did not prevent the attendees from fully participating in the meeting.

3. Editor presentation – Writing recommendations

Sue Jelley gave a presentation on the editor team at NICE, and the process followed when writing recommendations.

4. Evidence Review RQ7: Interventions to change or reduce access to the means of suicide

Rachel Walsh updated the committee on the review protocol, and presented the evidence.

The committee discussed the review, potential gaps in the evidence and potential recommendations. They agreed to revisit these later in the process.

5. Evidence review RQ3 - Local approaches to suicide clusters for suicide prevention

Yingying Wang recapped discussions held during the last meeting, and presented comments made by the committee made via email.

The committee discussed the draft recommendation in the light of these comments, and made amendments to the previous version.

6. Health Economic update and discussion

Vicki Pollit and Kate Ennis presented an update from YHEC on the progress made in developing an economic model.

The committee discussed the presentation and responded to YHEC queries. The committee agreed to the formation of a subgroup and volunteers were sought.

7. Look forward to the next meeting

Hugh McGuire informed the committee of the plans for the next meeting, and asked the committee how best to focus their search for evidence.

8. Any other business

There was no other business for discussion
