

NICE public health guideline on ‘Workplace policy and management practices to improve the health and wellbeing of employees’ (NG13)

Relevant ongoing NIHR research

June 2015

The NICE public health guideline NG13 includes details of the evidence that supports the recommendations. It also identifies gaps in the evidence and makes recommendations for future research. Guideline users may be interested to know about research already underway which relates to the topic of the guidance.

Examples of research from the current portfolio of the National Institute for Health Research (NIHR) are listed in the table below. These are just a few of the NIHR research projects that are in progress or at a pre-publication stage (at the time of publication of the NICE guideline).

Further NIHR research projects may also be of relevance to the guideline topic. The NIHR portfolio can be explored in detail by visiting www.nihr.ac.uk or by following the hyperlink to a specific NIHR programme, all of which have a public health research portfolio:
