

Economic Plan

This document identifies the areas prioritised for economic modelling. The final analysis may differ from those described below. The rationale for any differences will be explained in the guideline.

1 Guideline

Diabetic foot problems: prevention and management of foot problems in people with diabetes

2 List of Modelling Questions

Clinical questions by scope area	What are the clinical utilities of assessment and risk stratification tools for examining the feet of people with diabetes and classifying risk of foot problems?
Population	Children, young people and adults with type 1 or type 2 diabetes
Interventions considered for inclusion	Clinical judgement Other stratification system No risk assessment
Type of analysis	CUA
Clinical questions by scope area	How often should people with diabetes who are at risk of developing foot problems be reviewed?
Population	Children, young people and adults with type 1 or type 2 diabetes
Interventions considered for inclusion	Review schedules of varying frequency Standard care based on risk category
Type of analysis	CUA
Clinical questions by scope area	What is the effectiveness of different prevention strategies for people with diabetes at risk of developing foot problems?
Population	Children, young people and adults with type 1 or type 2 diabetes
Interventions considered for inclusion	Information, advice and education on self-monitoring Skin and nail care Information, advice and education about foot wear Provision of foot orthoses Provision of skin and nail care treatment Other preventive and management strategies Education for healthcare professionals Vs Standard care
Type of analysis	CUA

