1. Welcome, apologies, introductions and objectives

The Chair welcomed the Committee members and attendees to the 9th meeting on Social, emotional and mental wellbeing in primary and secondary education and asked those present to introduce themselves.

The Chair informed the Committee that apologies had been received. These are noted above.

2. Confirmation of matter under discussion, and declarations of interest

The Chair confirmed the matter under discussion and asked everyone to verbally declare any new conflicts of interest. No new interests were declared.

The Chair advised that Michael Wigelsworth is excluded from the drafting of recommendations for Review Question 3 on Universal curriculum due to the inclusion of MW's study in the evidence base. Otherwise, the interests previously declared did not prevent the attendees from fully participating in the meeting.

3. Update on engagement with children and young people

The Chair introduced Hugh McGuire and Lise Elliott who gave an update on how the current national lockdown will impact the schedule for engagement with children and young people being conducted by colleagues from University of Manchester.

4. Expert testimony

Pupil's views on education during the pandemic

The Chair introduced Dr Sarah Sivers, Educational Psychologist, who presented expert testimony on pupil's views on education during the pandemic.

The committee were then offered the opportunity to ask any questions concerning Dr Sivers' presentation.

5. Health economics - modelling approach

Mat Taylor, Erin Barker and Laura Coote gave an update on the Health economic modelling work being conducted for this guideline, discussed their proposals and assumptions with the committee and answered questions.

6. Guideline structure

Hugh McGuire began discussions with the committee on the proposed layout and structure of the draft guideline.

7. Revisit discussion and draft recommendations from previous day

The committee further discussed the effectiveness evidence identified for Universal curriculum and refined the drafted recommendations.

8. Sign off review protocol for review question 2.3

Hugh McGuire further discussed the review protocol for Review Question 3.1 with the committee and updated the protocol to reflect discussions...

9. Revisit discussion and draft recommendations from previous day

This item was encompassed within item 7.

10. Summary of the day and next steps

The Chair, summarised the discussion from the day, thanked the committee and confirmed the next meeting is scheduled for 13th April 2021.
