Disclaimer

The recommendations in this guideline represent the view of NICE, arrived at after careful consideration of the evidence available. When exercising their judgement, professionals are expected to take this guideline fully into account, alongside the individual needs, preferences and values of their patients or service users. The recommendations in this guideline are not mandatory and the guideline does not override the responsibility of healthcare professionals to make decisions appropriate to the circumstances of the individual patient, in consultation with the patient and, where appropriate, their carer or guardian.

Local commissioners and providers have a responsibility to enable the guideline to be applied when individual health professionals and their patients or service users wish to use it. They should do so in the context of local and national priorities for funding and developing services, and in light of their duties to have due regard to the need to eliminate unlawful discrimination, to advance equality of opportunity and to reduce health inequalities. Nothing in this guideline should be interpreted in a way that would be inconsistent with compliance with those duties.

NICE guidelines cover health and care in England. Decisions on how they apply in other UK countries are made by ministers in the Welsh Government, Scottish Government, and Northern Ireland Executive. All NICE guidance is subject to regular review and may be updated or withdrawn.

1.2 External Acknowledgements

During the development of the guideline, the team communicated with the authors of an ongoing review aiming to update an existing Cochrane review that investigated swallowing therapy for dysphagia after acute and subacute stroke. In this process the guideline development team had access to an early copy of their manuscript. This was authored by Gwenllian Wilkinson, Jacqueline K Benfield, Lisa F Everton and Philip M Bath. We are grateful to them for access to this work. This update was ultimately not included in the analysis, and the existing version of the Cochrane review was used instead.

The guideline development team acknowledge the work of the authors of the Cochrane reviews that were included to help answer the review questions in the guideline, these included:

- Langhorne P, Baylan S. Early supported discharge services for people with acute stroke. Cochrane Database of Systematic Reviews 2017, Issue 7. Art. No.: CD000443.
- Laver KE, Adey-Wakeling Z, Crotty M, Lannin NA, George S, Sherrington C. Telerehabilitation services for stroke. Cochrane Database of Systematic Reviews 2020, Issue 1. Art. No.: CD010255.

- Bath PM, Lee HS, Everton LF. Swallowing therapy for dysphagia in acute and subacute stroke. Cochrane Database of Systematic Reviews 2018, Issue 10. Art. No.: CD000323.
- English C, Hillier SL, Lynch EA. Circuit class therapy for improving mobility after stroke. Cochrane Database of Systematic Reviews 2017, Issue 6. Art. No.: CD007513.
- Mehrholz J, Pohl M, Platz T, Kugler J, Elsner B. Electromechanical and robot-assisted arm training for improving activities of daily living, arm function, and arm muscle strength after stroke. Cochrane Database of Systematic Reviews 2018, Issue 9. Art. No.: CD006876.
- Thieme H, Morkisch N, Mehrholz J, Pohl M, Behrens J, Borgetto B, Dohle C. Mirror therapy for improving motor function after stroke. Cochrane Database of Systematic Reviews 2018, Issue 7. Art. No.: CD008449.
