

Technology Advisory Committee B Interests Register

Topic: Cladribine for treating relapsing multiple sclerosis [ID6263]

Publication Date: 15 April 2025

Name	Role with NICE	Type of interest	Description of interest	Interest declared	Comments
Ruth Dobson	Clinical Expert	Non direct – financial	Her institution has received research funding from Merck for a project (2019 – present) and compensation for her time from Sandoz (2023 – 2024) Other past funding to her institution has come from Celgene, Biogen, Janssen, Novartis and Roche She is currently a PI on a clinical trial sponsored by Roche (2021-present) for which her institution receives support.	05/02/2025 13/11/2024	It was agreed that Ruth Dobson's declaration would not prevent her from providing expert advice to the committee.
Clair Winchester	Patient Expert		The nominating organisation (MS Trust) takes part in technology advisory boards, information campaigns and other events on behalf of people with MS. Many of these are not funded or expensed.	05/02/2025 13/11/2024	It was agreed that Wallace Brownlee's declaration would not prevent her from providing expert advice to the committee.

Name	Role with NICE	Type of interest	Description of interest	Interest declared	Comments
			The nominating organisation has received funds from several commercial organisations for delivery of health professional events and education.
Wallace Brownlee	Clinical Expert	Non-direct financial	He has accepted speaker honoraria for educational activities sponsored by Merck, and participated in an advisory board He has received honoraria for participation in educational activities and/or consulting from Biogen, Neuraxpharm, Novartis, Roche, Sanofi, Sandoz and Viartis	13/11/2024	It was agreed that Wallace Brownlee's declaration would not prevent him from providing expert advice to the committee.
Daniel Gallacher	TAC A committee Member	Non-financial professional interests	Daniel works part of Warwick Evidence who are the EAG for the topic being discussed	21/10/2024	It was agreed that Daniel's declaration would prevent him from participating in discussions on this appraisal.