24 April 2009

Dear Consultees and commentators,

The Appraisal Committee met to discuss this appraisal on 1st April.

The manufacturer of the drug has informed us that the date on which this drug will be launched in the UK has not been finalised and that the final price of the drug has not been formally announced. We therefore cannot release the decision agreed by the Committee and the evidence documentation related to the appraisal at this time.

We will contact you again when we have an update. If you have any questions, please contact me.

Best wishes,

Jeremy
