1. Welcome and objectives for the meeting

The Chair welcomed the committee members and attendees to the 10th meeting on multiple obstetric guidelines update. The committee members and attendees introduced themselves.

The Chair informed the committee that apologies had been received as noted above.

The Chair outlined the objectives of the meeting, which included: reviewing evidence, health economic analysis and making recommendations.

2. Confirmation of matter under discussion, and declarations of interest

The Chair confirmed that, for the purpose of managing conflicts of interest, the matters under discussion were multiple obstetric topics including induction of labour (IoL).

The Chair asked everyone to verbally declare any interests that have risen since the last meeting. New interests were declared and noted below.

Name	Role with NICE	Type of interest	Description of interest	Relevant dates			Comments
				Interest arose	Interest declared	Interest ceased
Sarah Fishburn	Chair	Direct, personal and professional	Co-author of article: Diagnosis and management of hypertension in pregnancy for BMJ	September 2019	30/10/2019	Ongoing	Declare and participate Agreed by: GL Oct 2019 Rationale: Not specific to guideline.
Mark Tighe	Committee Member	Direct, personal and professional	Member of NICE quality standards advisory committee on	October 2019	25/10/2019	Ongoing	Declare and participate Agreed by: GL Oct 2019

			faltering growth				Rationale: Not specific to guideline.
Mike Maresh also declared that he had been involved as a co-author of the article: Diagnosis and management of hypertension in pregnancy for BMJ The Chair and Guideline Lead noted that the interests declared in the registry did not prevent the attendees from fully participating in the meeting.
3. Minutes of last meeting
The Chair asked the committee to confirm the minutes of the last meeting, and the committee confirmed that no changes were required. The action and decision log from Guideline committee meeting 9 was reviewed and confirmed by the committee.
4. Morning presentations
Eva Gonzalez presented the evidence review for IoLQ1: What are the benefits and harms associated with methods of induction of labour in women with fetal macrosomia?
5. Afternoon presentations
IoLQ2 & 3: What are the benefits and harms associated with pharmacological and mechanical methods of induction of labour in women who request labour induction? <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Louise Geneen gave an update on a post-hoc data analysis done for IoLQ2 & 3, as requested by the committee at the last meeting in September. • Nicky Welton presented a threshold analysis report for the NMA results, which the committee used to check their confidence in their recommendations. • Paul Jacklin presented an update on the health economic evidence and subsequent changes to the model.
6. Questions and discussions
The committee discussed the evidence for IoLQ1 and drafted recommendations. The committee discussed the post-hoc evidence for IoLQ23, the health economic model and threshold analysis report and reviewed their recommendations. The committee reviewed all the recommendations in the IoL guideline and discussed edits.

7. Any other business

Hilary Eadon shared the revised meeting dates with the committee, including the additional meeting resulting from the extended guideline timeline.

Hilary Eadon also discussed with the committee the digital pathway for the induction of labour guideline, and asked for volunteers who would be able to work with NICE and contribute to its development. Five members of the committee volunteered.

The Chair reminded the committee of the date for the next meeting.

Date of next meeting: 24th January 2020
