

the NPHS Wales has no information to add to this. In the absence of other evidence countering the proposal the NPHS would support this guidance moving to the static list.